Gemline®

Responsible Design

We spring ahead this season with new perspectives and renewed energy, bringing you exciting, relevant designs that are fresh and innovative.

We search the world for what's in-demand—providing solutions to support the ever-changing ways in which we live, work and play. Inspired by the latest cultural and design trends, we develop products that are skillfully designed, yet fully functional, flexible, and sustainably smart to create solutions that meet today's fluid lifestyle.

We design products that make a difference—products that are eco-friendly, use natural and renewable resources, support giving back and promote reuse. We complement our line by developing partnerships with trusted, well-known brands to curate the best selection of innovative, smart and highly desirable products at a wide variety of price points.

Responsibly designed and distinctively innovative.

2023 TRENDS

Discover the latest trends that our in-house design team has been busy researching and developing to deliver relevant, distinctive designs and inspired products.

INNATURE

Grounded in Harmony and Balance.

Nature is interconnected and a fundamental part of our being. Awe-inspiring and brilliant, it commands our appreciation and respect for greater balance and a brighter future.

IMPROVE

Imagining a Better Way.

Social consciousness meets personal responsibility as consumers invest their time, money and energy to improve their lives and the world around them.

DIGIVERSE

Amplifying Connections and Transparency.

As we look to discover a new virtual realm to enrich, expand and create new possibilities, we harness new technology to amplify connections and transparency through the digital world.
